Join Our HYPACK Sales Team!

By Lourdes Evans

Attention HYPACK Family! We're looking to expand our sales force! HYPACK is looking to add a motivated individual to our team with big dreams and a big appetite for success. For more information on the role, keep reading and follow the link at the end.

What kind of person? Honestly, we just need a really good sales person, passionate about HYPACK®, who enjoys traveling and working with customers.

The candidate will be responsible for HYPACK® sales primarily in North America, with occasional work outside the US, working directly with clients, agents and manufacturers. They will be responsible for meeting targeted sales goals, driving growth and seeking new opportunities across all product lines. The candidate will be the lead for unmanned systems, including the NEXUS800 drone, for quotes, demonstrations and trade shows. The job is located in Middletown CT, however, at least 30% of the job requires overnight travel by car and plane.
